

Tennis Australia funds and supports these initiatives and programs for female coaches and past players. So, with financial and company support you are always in a good position. Furthermore, the appointment of our first female President has been very positive in this space and our coaching scholarships are now named 'President's Women in Tennis coaching' scholarships.

The initiatives we have began are;

- Advance the careers of women wanting to become full time coaches
 - This is offering funding to complete a coaching qualification
- Assist the transition of recent retired players to coaching
 - This is offering funding to complete a coaching qualification
 - Travelling coach apprenticeship scheme – giving opportunities for past players to travel on national and international tours
 - National camp scholarships – past players to attend a national camp or Fed Cup o broaden their coaching experiences.
- Deliver a nationwide program of an all female Community Coaching Course that is funded by TA.
- Deliver nationwide all female Junior Development Courses.
- Women in Tennis coaching forums across the country

With further funding by the Australian Government over the next two years, we are beginning to plan our strategy for further grow and development for female tennis coaches in Australia for 2020 and beyond.
